I'm whispering to myself
That I must not fall
I want to keep breathing
Until my eyes are closed

I hear everything that surrounds me
And I believe in golden fictions
Tales of happiness and disappointment

Iâ€™m whispering to myself
That I must not quit
I want to keep singing
Until my voice fades away

I hear everything that surrounds me
And I believe in golden fictions
Tales of happiness and disappointment

Searching for perfection
Fighting against my will
My lack of faith, my lack of hope

I see creation all around me
And I believe in golden dreams
Tales of happiness and new beginnings

I see creation all around me
And I believe in golden dreams
Tales of happiness and new beginnings

New beginnings
