You're the victim, I'm affected, can't you let go?
I can't argue with the new you, you're such a weirdo Don't you lie to me again, I know exactly where you've been

Didn't think you'd take the long way out (all alone) Should've known you'd take the long way out (on your own)
Didn't think you'd take the long way
Didn't think it'd take you all day
Should've known you'd take the long way out

You're demented, I'm offended, violated
When you fall down I won't feel down because I waited
Is it true that you feel low with someone that you hardly know?

Didn't think you'd take the long way out (all alone)
Should've known you'd take the long way out (on your own)
Didn't think you'd take the long way

Didn't think it'd take you all day
Should've known you'd take the long way out

Didn't think you'd take the long way out
Didn't think you'd take the long way out

Didn't think you'd take the long way out (all alone) Should've known you'd take the long way out (on your own)
Didn't think you'd take the long way
Didn't think it'd take you all day Should've known you'd take the long way out (take the long way out)
Didn't think you'd take the long way out (Didn't think you'd take the long way out) Didn't think you'd take the long way out (Didn't think you'd take the long way out) Didn't think you'd take the long way out (Didn't think you'd take the long way out)
