Is this a sign?
Do I attack or give it time?
Let my heart break in two
Over you
Or what could have been
What I never meant
What I never meant to you

Oh I've done it this time
Yeah I walked into flames
You burned me alive
Left with nothing but shame
For trusting your glow
For loving your smile
How can this be?
Please say you're in denial

Was it in my mind?
Yeah all this time
Did I fool myself into thinking
We were more? I'm torn
I thought there was something more
There was something more to you

How can I ever trust again?
How can I ever love again?
When will I be repaid for this?
I walked into flames
Love wants me dead
I walked into flames
I walked into pain
Love wants me dead
