I took a walk around four in the morning
I brought my soul 'cause he helps me think
I've got a problem with letting life build up
'Til I cannot move forward, and I cannot afford this

I'm getting close to feeling like a let down
I'm sick and tired of things falling through
I hope one day that I'll look back and realize
This time has made me better

I hope I'll say
That I'm ok
I hope I'll say
That I'm ok
And I saw it through

I saw an old friend and it got me thinking
Maybe I'm being too hard on myself
Still got my dreams, my pride, and my devotion
I'm making forward motions

I hope I'll say
That I'm ok
I hope I'll say
That I'm ok
And I saw it through

And not for you

I saw it through
And not for you
