The first task that did appear
Across the blackening sky
Not only empty, it's below
I walk some more, I cry
Don't break me fragilely, lay still

But if you want me to
I could be with you now
Come the light of dawn
I'm movin' on

But with the rain comes the wind
Yes, that storm is comin' 'round again
I picture you in my mind
Those places waiting
I hope not to see, again

But if you want me to
I could be with you now
Come the light of dawn
I'm movin' on, yeah, I'm gone

Whatever you may feel
Time moves as it will
However you choose to deal
Lord knows I tried
But time, don't stand still

If you want me to
I could be with you now
Come the light of dawn
I'm gone
