"No Such Thing"

This is not forgotten, and from you I am saved,
I'm feeling all alone, I lie awake in shame.

And I can see,

And through 1000 eyes, I see you now,
You're broken down, and you're lost without,
Any hope on your mind,
There's no such thing as one of a kind.

Now all your hope is gone,
Burned away from the sun,
We rise and set,
And we can see this,

And I can see,

And through 1000 eyes I see you now,
You're broken down, and you're lost without,
Any hope on your mind,
There's no such thing of one of a kind.

And through 1000 eyes I see you now,
You're broken down, and you're lost without,
Any hope on your mind,
There's no such thing of one of a kind.
