Time spent with you is time, time still and clear
An open heart an open mind I hold so dear
You take the pain and throw it all away
I'll live for you, you take me through another day yeah
You take my life and all things that I hold true
Keep them together write off all that is blue
You'll be the death of me the writing says it clear
Still with my heart I will always hold you dear

I'll never let you go the hold you have on me compares to nothing at all
I'll never let you go you won't go oh I'll never let you go

You make me race you make me slow
You make me win you make me like the devil
You always make me sin just one more time
To show my love is true together with you always

You hooked me up and reeled me into you
And now I'm here I'll never let you go

We can't leave here ever now we are one
You've got your hold on me and I've got mine on you

I'll never let you go the hold you have on me compares
to nothing at all
I'll never let you go you won't go oh I'll never let you go
