Visit "Last Night" on MotoLyrics.com

Where did you go where did you stay?
You could have called it doesn't matter now anyway

Anyway....anyway yay...anyway..anyway...ay...

When you went out late last night
You must've had far too many pints
Cause you told me there and then
Where you're going exactly where and when,
But when I called your voice was strange
And it was late you said you missed the train.
Back next day you tried to explain
Where were you last night?

Where did you go where did you stay?
You could have called it doesn't matter now anyway

Anyway....anyway yay...anyway..anyway...ay...

Anyway!

[repeat chorus]
