Promised you they would make you a man
Young and bored you didn't understand
But you didn't believe us
You needed proof
Now they stole two years of your youth

Now you're a man
Spent your youth on the run
It's too late now
You missed all the fun
They stole your youth

You come home you're glad
You're still fucking alive
Hiding in a tent
That was no place to hide
But you didn't believe us
You needed proof
Now they stole two years of your youth

Now you're a man
Spent your youth on the run
It's too late now
You missed all the fun
They stole your youth

They stole your youth (x4)

But now you're a man
Spent your youth on the run
It's too late now
You missed all the fun
They stole your youth
