Take what you want Cause I've been lied to, cheated on, knocked down and kicked in the head
I think I'll get drunk Cause there's no reason to stick around, feeling down lying in bed

You use to say I was your one and only
That we fit, fit like a glove
Now you're goin' and want to leave me lonely

(You're the reason)
I hate love
You're the reason
You're the reason I hate love You're pissin' me off Cause there's no words to break through, get you to give in to me
You're stressing me out Cause I've been so confused, self abused, crazy's what you want me to be

It takes about an hour for her to put on all her make up Then she says don't kiss me cause you'll make my lipstick smear Seems like every other week she claims she's on her period
Then she says lets make love but don't touch my hair what a b*t*h
