I was a little boy and I took it hard when grandpa had to leave Grandma said, listen up son, I've someone I'd like for you to meet
And she pulled to the edge of the road by the river side
And cranked a new track radio
A man come on singin' everything gonna be alright
And in that August sun she smiled, the tears welled in her eyes
She said, sometimes it's gonna rain even if you don't want it too
What ya gonna do

Ooo ooo oooo
Sitting on a riverbank
Ooo ooo ooo
Her arm around me
Ooo ooo ooo
We sang quietly
Grandma, me and Bob Marley

So baby when that sun ain't shining you can call on me I'll take you miles along a winding road to places that you've been Where you can find your strength again and in the morning
you will rise, You're gonna be alright

Ooo ooo oooo
Sitting on a riverbank
Ooo ooo ooo
Arms around you
Ooo ooo ooo
We'll sing quietly
You and me and Bob Marley [x2]

You and me and Bob Marley...
