"Little Yellow Blanket"

Hoppers on a dirt road, pollen in the air
Farmers in the orchard, on ladders picking pears
Me and you driving grandmas Cadillac
Gonna have a picnic on a yellow blanket
In the meadow out back

Honey bees, a little lady bug
Squirrel behind a tree, hanging out with us
Gonna drink your sweet tea and a little cherry pie
On a little yellow blanket, just you and I

Baby, let me hold you underneath the tree
Where you can sing some medley, strum a couple of strings
You can have a dip from my newest cold can Chase you through the holler down into the creek
Where we can take a bath

Honey bees, a little lady bug
Squirrel behind a tree, hanging out with us
Gonna drink your sweet tea and a little cherry pie
On a little yellow blanket, just you and I
Alright, now

So many things the two of us could do
With that little yellow blanket if we wanted to

Honey bees, a little lady bug
Squirrel behind a tree, hanging out with us
Gonna drink your sweet tea and a little cherry pie
On a little yellow blanket, just you and I

On a little yellow blanket, just you and I
