[verse 1]

Look at the waterfall fallin' on the head of that girl
We want a green world
We want a much better world
The fantasy island is our desire
Men only want to fire
Make smoke, concrete and money
The main aim
Nature can't be silenced
No use sitting
Let's steal yacht and invade land
Hang magnates and tear documents
Save the whales, the ocean clean and reduce global warming
We want a different world, just a warnin'

[chorus]

We shout to the world to hear
A greener world
A better world
A different world
His heirs will live here
His kid and grandkid

[verse 2]

Come on! Get the red lace
Open a smile and put the sound of U2
You would not want to live in a Zoo
Do somethin' for Africa
Help kid in Haiti
If you got a Benz, if you got a crib
Give a little for those who have nothin'
We want a more blue world
I'm a gangsta, but the street we have a heart
Forget for 1 second that is a star

[chorus]

We shout to the world to hear
A greener world
A better world
A different world
His heirs will live here
His kid and grandkid

[verse 3]

Dress White

It's not necessary to play bottles at sea

His heirs will live here

Bottles after bottles still see plastic

I don't want a classic

I want a better world to live

To dwell and see

This song did not shoot, save

Oh! Look! On the horizon opens a way

Subscribe to the protocol

Break the Nuclear Power Plant

Don't take the soil a tree

Remember, his heirs will live here

[talkin']

Aww nigga, seriously

Let us all take care of what is ours!

We want a green world!

[sea beatin'
