This Is Not A
Threat

Iâ€™m wrapped up in what we have become

Something I never expected

Our ties have grown so incredibly strong

Now everyoneâ€™s trying to break it

Fall into me

Iâ€™ll protect you from them

But Iâ€™ll never turn away

Cause I canâ€™t back down

No, no not now, baby

Iâ€™m in way to deep

When the seas drain,

On desert plains,

That will be

When I let you go

And we both know

The stars wonâ€™t ever cease to shine,

Cause when they do

They can take away whatâ€™s mine, youâ€™re mine.

Iâ€™ve fallen short one too many times

Still you should all practice forgiveness

My heart is hers, and she will help direct it in line

Let me redeem myself one last time

Iâ€™ll hold you in secrecy

And if they catch us

Theyâ€™ll try to take me away

Cause I canâ€™t back down

No, no not now, baby

Iâ€™m in way to deep

When the seas drain,

On desert plains,

That will be

When I let you go

And we both know

The stars wonâ€™t ever cease to shine,
Cause when they do

They can take away whatâ€™s mine, youâ€™re mine.

And Iâ€™ve done some things in my past

Those things are so long gone

It just takes one mistake

Forever theyâ€™ll hold on

So what

I guess youâ€™re just perfect

And I

will never be as good as you

Take me away and I swear

You'll reap the pain you've put me through
I've done some things in my past
Those things are so long gone
Forever they'll hold on People right now are talking
Their words won't break my legs
So I'll just keep on walking
Through this treacherous pathway
Cause I can't back down
I'm in way to deep
When the seas drain,
On desert plains,
That will be
And we both know
The stars won't ever cease to shine,
Cause when they do
They can take away what's mine, you're mine.
