

Death Before Dishonor "Fuck It All"

Iâve been thinking it over
Iâve been thinking long and hard
Like a knife thatâs been scraping
Scraping away at my mind
FUCK IT ALL
Iâm sick of finding excuses
Iâm sick of feeling so down and out
A brick wall at a dead end
Iâm still trying to smash my way out
FUCK IT ALL
Iâm still trying to smash my way out
Trying to see past something
Thatâs not there
But I will fall again
I canât see clear
Levelled everything
That I thought was in my way
At the end of the dap
Itâs just me here standing in my way
Iâve been thinking it over
What the fuck is this all about
Iâm sick of finding excuses
Iâm sick of feeling so down and out
