I - I've been - so drained - a hollow shell - numb to pain and

I - I will - make it through - come out stronger - I always do

One more funeral might just make me break

How much suffering are we meant to take

Feel the world cave in and start to break

I - I can't - come clean - living in - an empty dream and

I - I dropped - the fucking deal - left the future - we had sealed

Back at zero - happy, broke, and free but

Fuck this year it's took too much from me

Feel the world cave in and start to break

From me

Forged an iron will - kept a cool head

All my family cries - for our gone and dead

We've lost too much

Too many friends and family gone

Disease and addiction

Never thought I'd have to be so strong

We're only 3 months in and I see no dawn

No dawn

The sun fell - on us all - when the new year - heeded it's call

Darkness - with our loved ones gone - will it come around

When will we see the dawn

I pray it won't be long
