

Death Before Dishonor "Still Standing"

They breed the kids
To value what they say
Fuel a desire
For a different day
A fire burning up the truth inside
(Can't consume me)
A hollow man living an empty life
(That won't be me)
No not me I won't be weak
Rip apart the thickest skin
I'll stand until the end
I'll fall, I'll rise - hold on until I die
I see beyond the simple plan
I'll rise and be a better man
There's no retreat - I can't be beat
Reject the lies
You can talk but I will not buy
Sever the lies
I always knew
The things they promised me
Would just be used
To keep me on a leash
They numb your mind
Until they sell your soul
No not me I won't be weak
Rip apart the thickest skin
I'll stand until the end
I'll fall, I'll rise - hold on until I die
I see beyond the simple plan
I'll rise and be a better man
There's no retreat - I can't be beat
Transparent world - I've seen it fall
Into the cracks - crumble the walls
And now I can't be
CAN'T BE BEAT
