

Death Before Dishonor "Take Me Away"

Iâve toppled over
And Iâm tumbling down
Iâve hit the floor so hard
I broke the ground
My hands are shaking
And my heads a mess
I canât stop
The pounding in my chest
Reaching, bleeding, helpless
Needing something to save me â kill me
Take me away
Is there a light at the end
Or is it just more pain?
It seems so far away
Is every step in vain?
Reaching, bleeding, helpless
TAKE ME AWAY
I always said I wanted more
I guess you get what you ask for
