We spread out and occupy
The cracks in the urban streets
Idle now, I rearrange the furniture as you sleep
As you sleep, as you sleep

It's so appropriate
The way we amplify the sound
And then the neighbors drop by
And they ask to turn it down again

We spread out
And everyone is frightfully more aware
So impressed
The cocktail politics and obscure details

It's so appropriate
The way we amplify the sound
And then the neighbors drop by
And they ask to turn it down again

And it was true that I was truly failing
You were gone and I was home calling around
But nothing was found worthwhile

We spread out and occupy
The cracks in the urban streets
Idle now, I rearrange the furniture as you sleep
As you sleep, as you sleep
