Three wasted years, standing still
As you opened up, eighteen miles wide
On this country drive

I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight

Three wasted years, wasting time
As the hunger pains grow inside

I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight

I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight

I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight
