These things take my time and energy;
don't stand too close without apologies Cut-throat, cut out candid glimpses and wind me up, I'm ready

Can't escape this line of best fit

Can't escape this line of best fit

These things take my time and energy;
don't stand too close without apologies

I remember being inside of something more than you

Can't escape this line of best fit.

Can't escape this line of best fit

Can't escape this line of best fit

Can't escape this line of best fit
