Gonna flee or gonna fight curled up in a ball to die this fire's losing all its light slowly suffocating

do as i say not as i do i've got all the answers girl and i'm screaming them at you blame it all on barbie dolls blame it all on me

i made you feel so close to God
but it was all a dream

my world is a vampire it's turned and left me here rock and roll will never die but you and i will my dear

i want so desperately to save you but my life still looks like hell this crowd that's gathered all around us is screaming:
physician heal thyself
