I'm thinking of a plan, hope it works out right
At least get us through the night
Holding onto your hand, I'll hold on tight
As tight as I can

You hold the key
And you dangle it right in front of me
You hold my heart
Watch me salivate, watch me fall apart

Don't look so surprised, I'll hold you up
High above the rest
And you'll never have the need for love
All I need to know
Is how much is too much?

I love your smile, I love your scent
And how you taste like peppermint
Bring me to my knees, oh, you make me weak
Tongue-tied, I can't speak

You hold the key
And you dangle it right in front of me
You hold my heart
Watch me salivate, watch me fall apart

Don't look so surprised, I'll hold you up
High above the rest
And you'll never have the need for love
All I need to know
Is how much is too much?

I will sing to you, whenever you want me to
I will shade you in the summertime
I will sing to you, whenever you want me to
I would hold you by the moonlight

Don't look so surprised, I'll hold you up
High above the rest
And you'll never have the need for love
All I need to know
Is how much...

Don't look so surprised, I'll hold you up
High above the rest
And you'll never have the need for love
All I need to know
Is how much is too much?
