I won't accept defeat.
I'm moving to the beat
Of a different rhythm and you're so slow. (you're so slow, you're so slow)
And ask yourself: is the ground solid that you stand on?
And comprehend: we break and bend.
This conversation's going nowhere.
I'm leaving you behind.

Whoa-oh
Give it all you got.
I know it's not that simple, though.
You don't always get what you deserve.

I won't accept defeat.
I'm moving to the beat
Of a different rhythm and you're so slow. (you're so slow, you're so slow)
And comprehend: we break and bend.
This conversation's going nowhere.
I'm leaving you behind.

Whoa-oh
Give it all you got.
I know it's not that simple, though.
You don't always get what you deserve.

And when the sky falls down tonight,
I hope we live through this.
And when the truth, it turns to light,
I'm gonna hold you to it.

Whoa-oh
Give it all you got
I know it's not that simple, though
You don't always get what you deserve
