Rest now my love, I know it's more than you've been used to, and by my side your warm and safe and have no cares. You're not alone, you're not alone and it's not so hard cuz my load is easy. Rest now in the shelter of my wings. Here it comes that fear flowin over me. Is it real and will forever be, world around can't bring me down, can't bring me down.

If I had one day to live,
I wouldn't have to walk on water, Wouldn't have to shine...
Wouldn't matter if I did,
'Cuz I'd spend my life with you
