My love i know i was wrong thought i was going to move on but there's just one thing that i must do.

Need to prove to you again you'll still the one to the end erase this heartbreak i've been going through.

Let me show you everything that could be something that it should be when we're again.

Oh my baby

I can't deny just what you mean to me words can't describe it's all in my heart the more i try to live individually something tells me
take it back in time
take it back in time
Rewind

Rewind

The symphony of you and me keeps on longing to be thoses memories they circle through my mind i guess some things are less in me now i finally see the one true thing i need is you inside

Let me show you exactly how it could be something that it should be when we're again

Oh my baby

words can't describe it's all in my heart
something tells me
take it back in time
take it back in time
Rewind

The more i try the more i find all we had you and me now i learn that right is wrong and be with you again

Now i know our love can win baby bring me back to then take this chance and we can have this divine by now tell me oh where oh where is the moment when we take it back in time take it back in time Rewind

I can't deny just what you mean to me
words can't describe it's all in my heart
the more i try to live individually
something tells me
take it back in time
take it back in time
Rewind

I can't deny just what you mean to me
words can't describe it's all in my heart
the more i try to live individually
something tells me
take it back in time
take it back in time
