Say it again!

I know I heard you right I've been lying awake at night thinkin about three words you said to me I know it's hard for you but sometimes you gotta let your feeling through I wanna know exactly how you feel..

Ohh yeah!!

I try to be patient
and give you a little more time
now I need to be sure
what's on your mind

Chorus:
Say it again (say it)
say the words I heard you whisper
say it again (say it)
when last night we were together
lying next to me
you said to me (say it)
Say it again

I knew right from the start you were living with a broken heart but baby I knew it could take some time to heal but now I must confess the way your filling me with happiness think that we could be starting something real Ohh yeah!!

I try to be patient
and give you a little more time
now I need to be sure
what's on your mind

Chorus:
Say it again (say it)
say the words I heard you whisper
say it again (say it)

when last night we were together
lying next to me
you said to me (say it)
Say it again

and I just need to be sure that your mine forever all I'm asking you for is to tell me weather I should be trusting in you tell me if the what you whispered were true say it, say it, say it, say it!!

Chorus:
Say it again (say it)
say the words I heard you whisper
say it again (say it)
when last night we were together
lying next to me
you said to me (say it)
Say it again
(x2)
