It gets too hard to see
I know you know, 'you know me
It gets too hard to feel
I know you know I can kill
They stopped us moving fast
You know we weren't meant to last
They made it hard to heal
I know you know I'm not real

There's something wrong with me
I'll never be worth it
You'll always find something wrong with me
I'll never be perfect
There's something wrong with me
I'll never be worth it
You'll always find something wrong with me
I'll never be perfect

It gets too hard to find
I know you're just in my mind
It gets so hard to tell
I know you know this is hell
When it's too dark for me
I know you know I'm not free
It gets too hard to lie
I know you know I can't die

There's something wrong with you
So broken you deserve it
I'll always find something wrong with you
You're so fucking perfect
There's something wrong with you
So broken you deserve it
I'll always find something wrong with you
You're so fucking perfect
