I had meaning

But you took that away

I had reason

But that was yesterday

I had feelings

That were unfashionable

Wouldn't hurt you

If I was rational

This is not me in control

All fucked up and no-where to go

Counter-culture kills your soul

All fucked up and no-where to go...

This is not me in control

All fucked up and no-where to go

Counter-culture kills your soul

All fucked up and no-where to go...

you're so pretty

you taste like cyanide

I'm disgraceful

I look like suicide

Drag a name up from my past

Push my face into the glass
Watch our futures turn to ash
You know we weren't built to last
This is not me in control
All fucked up and no-where to go
Counter-culture kills your soul
All fucked up and no-where to go...
This is not me in control
All fucked up and no-where to go
Counter-culture kills your soul
All fucked up and no-where to go...
This is not me in control
All fucked up and no-where to go
Counter-culture kills your soul
All fucked up and no-where to go...
This is not me in control
All fucked up and no-where to go
Counter-culture kills your soul
All fucked up and no-where to go...
