There's an angel fucking a dead man
Just over the way
Come on, come on, call me Bitch, she says,
Just over the way
There's a black man dressing like a white man
Dressing like a black man over the way.
There's deliverance dripping from a needle
Just over the way
All of this is true
All of this is real
And none of this is new
None of this is...
There's a playground full of rabies
Just over the way
There's politicians french kissing babies

Just over the way
There's road that'll take you anywhere
Just over the way
There's a God that'll tell you he doesn't care
Just over the way
All of this is true
All of this is real
And none of this is new
None of this is...
All of this is true
All of this is real
And none of this is new
None of this is...
All of this is true
All of this is real
And none of this is new
None of this is...
