Today, I couldn't help myself
Killed a man for what he saw
Let go and bled straight from my eyes
Past caring anymore
Broken skin, I taste the blood of you
Running naked doesn't bother us
Tolerance is shot to hell and through
Cuts and bruises in the dust
We will destroy
Every girl and every boy
We will destroy
You know that's what you're there for
We will destroy
The innocent, the guilty, the strong and the small

We will destroy
You made us and you hate us and you're begging for more
Burning comes and I can't control myself
Fill my vision with knives
Cut loose and rabid, my pain is a scythe
I don't want my life
Your hatred is pure as ice
Split the iris, I won't believe
Space invaders, conditioned Christ
The virus and the apathy, the same disease
