Here we go

Diamonds are forever
But people are more like little flowers
Diamonds are forever
But people are more like little flowers

Growing in the crash of the loud traffic noise
Of desperate western relationships
Past life regressions, romantic depressions
And midnight walks down repeating sunsets

You killed me with the truth of my relationship
Braked ever since you sunk my battleship
This is the story of the whole world, yeah
Everyone where we came from
Trying to get some shika dow, shika dow dow
Shika dow, shika dow, shika dow dow

She took my hand, said to me, "Let me let you in on a secret
You've already got all the love you're needing
In your heart, in your mind, in your imagination
You've already got all the love you're needing"

We wanted each other so bad
We wanted to possess, we wanted success in the area of undress
We wanted to own, we were so tired of renting
We wanted to attack, we were so tired of defending
Of moving on the motorcycle of life
Without a seatbelt, without a tale on a kite

Diamonds are forever
But the people are more like little flowers
More like September, October, November, December
More like the minutes to the hour

She took my hand, said to me, "Let me let you in on a secret
You've already got all the love you're needing
In your heart, in your mind, in your imagination

Already got all the love you need"

I can?t get enough, I can?t pay enough
Don?t mess with my conditional reality
Reward and punishment mentality
Always gets the best of me

I wound you, you wound me
I need you, you need me
I want you, yeah, you want me

She took my hand, said to me, "Let me let you in on a secret
You?ve already got all the love you're needing
In your heart, in your mind, in your imagination
You've already got all the love you're needing"

Hey yeah, already got all the love you're needing
In your heart, in your mind, in your imagination
You've already got all the love you're needing Hey, hey, in your heart, in your mind, in your imagination
You've already got all the love you're needing
