We've waited long for this day to come
For all the midnight lights we've burnt into the morning sun
I can't wait to see your sweet mysteries
The moon, the stars, the sun, the universe, the galaxies

Fly home on your silver wings
With your new song for the world to sing
Light this candle, make it right

Yes, you can change the world
True love discovers and she stands
And she won't back down

Oh yes, you can change the world
There is no other one
Believe and you will find blue sky

Gonna chase the dream, we gonna set it free Gonna make it real, gonna make it shine, gonna keep it grooving on
One small stepping stone, baby we're not alone
Gonna take you further, higher, faster then you're out of sight

You've got my flame in your fire, baby
You've got my twinkle in your eye
Reaching for the distant light

Yes, you can change the world
True love discovers and she stands
And she won't back down

Oh yes, you can change the world
There is no other one
Believe and you will find blue sky

Don't you change too late, hey, yeah, yeah
Or fade away, yeah, oh
My stars won't wait

Yes, you can change the world
True love discovers and she stands
And she won?t back down

Oh yes, you can change the world
There is no other one
Believe and you will find blue sky

Yes, you can change the world
True love discovers and she stands
And she won?t back down

Oh yes, you can change the world
There is no other one
Believe and you will find blue sky
