Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on

Pick up your knee and your steep side
The river is deep and running all night
From your tender moonlit lake

I sit on the ground in the city light
I live in the traffic and I sleep light
Might I touch your illustrious face?

Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on

She's got the hydrogen bomb and the satellite
Move her around and keep her treated right
She gon?, wanna know my name

Trouble is keen and the money's tight
I've got the need and the cheap ride
To take you with me into space

Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on

Universe is on for you tonight
Universe is on for you tonight

Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
