Last night, I woke
I was somewhere sleeping
In a strange woman's bed
With my head still ringing

Sometimes, it's the wicked thunder
The wine and women take you under
She'll laugh at you and smile at you
Leave you to wake and feel

It all comes down
It all comes down sometimes
It all comes down
It all comes down sometimes

Last night, I woke
I forgot my sweet dreaming
My head against the window
Watch the highway lines streaming

And there numbers to go with every place
A name to go with every face
But never one to call my own
Ain't it nice to be a rolling stone?

It all comes down
It all comes down sometimes
It all comes down
It all comes down sometimes

Last night, I woke
I heard some woman screaming
Waving her arms
Yeah, she loves me for singing

A song to keep it all inside
Sing, ?You're so pretty and it's alright?
The pride and rhythm make it better
And bittersweet when love can't keep

It all comes down
It all comes down sometimes

It all comes down
It all comes down sometimes
