She lulled me into a fake sense of security then pulled the rug out from under me. they lull us into a fake sense of security then they pull the rug from underneath you and me. NO WARNING! she'll take your will to live away. they'll take your rights to life away. future full of disarray cause by trust and ignorance and apathy. NO WARNING! so trust no one who hasn't earned it cause trust will leave you scarred and burnt. be aware of your surroundings and never trust your enemies. cause hate and pain is what they'll bring be aware of everything. NO WARNING!
