"The Blood Remains"

Visit "The Blood Remains" on MotoLyrics.com

The nightmare has started again
A black raven sitting on my chest
He drags me in to the house of hell
On the bank of the bloody river

Still hanging some strange fruits in the trees
Blood on the roots again

Were ever I turn my head
I see dead bodies everywhere
I can not scream I can not breath
I'm bound in my dream

Still hanging some strange fruits in the trees
Blood on the roots again

On the bank of the bloody
River lies the house of hell
Still hanging some strange fruits in the trees
Blood on the roots again
