Hi, hello, how are you
I haven't been here
Well, it must be years

The place is not the same somehow
There's a jukebox playing loudly now
That wasn't here then

Tell me, by the way
Does he still look just the same
And does he still remember me
And if you see him, won't you

(CHORUS)

Please tell him that I said hello
And that everything has turned out fine
Give him my love and wish him well
Don't let him know you saw me crying
Tell him I won't be back again
It was chance that
Made me pass this way
Just say I came in for awhile
And left again yesterday

Well, so long, I'll see you
You know the world
Gets smaller every day
But now I must be leaving and
So the next time that you see him

(CHORUS)

La la la la la la
Everything has turned out fine
