Hey, hey, hey, lover
You don't have to be a king
Hey, hey, hey, lover
You don't have to have a thing

For I'll be satisfied
Long as you are my guy
Just give me true love
And understanding
True love and understanding

Hey, hey, hey, lover
You don't have to be a star
Hey, hey, hey, lover
I want you just the way you are

For love is just the same
Without fortune and fame
Just give me true love
And understanding
True love and understanding
For the rest of my days

No, you don't have to worry
Bout putting diamonds in my hand
Cause if you really, really love me
In my heart, you'd be a big man

Hey, lover, treat me good and nice
And it will be all right
Just give me true love
And understanding

True love and understanding
True love and understanding
True love and understanding...
