It was a dirty September.
The moon was blue.
I was thinking of Prince when I collided with you.
Got caught in a fever.
Felt your temperature rise.
You don't need a doctor, just need the kiss of life.

Kiss it better.
You know I could.
Come on, come on, come on let me kiss it good.
Don't start crying cuz you don't understand.
Potions and lotions are never gonna make you a man!
Well, you can name your poison, get down and pray,
but don't call a doctor babe, you just need a kiss a day.
Kiss it better.
K-k-k-kiss it good.
Come on, come on, gonna kiss it like I know I should.
Make it better.
You know I could.
Come on, come on, come on let me kiss it good.

Kiss it better.

Well, you can call me bad and you can call me rude,
but I got a fever and I know I got it from you!
So go tell your mama she can keep her advice.
You don't need a doctor, you need the kiss of life.

Kiss it better.
Kiss it good.
Come on, come on, gonna kiss it like a bad girl should.
Kiss it better.
Oh, I know I could.
Come on, come on, come on, let me kiss it g-g-g-g-g-good ow!

Kiss it better.
Gonna kiss it right.
Kiss it better.
If you're real nice, gonna kiss it... twice.
Kiss it better.
Give you the kiss of life, ah ah ah.

Kiss it better.
Wanna make it good.

I wanna kiss it better!
Kiss it real good.
Kiss it nice, kiss it twice.
Oh no no, don't start crying!
I wanna kiss it better!
