Because it's all just words
A specter of conjecture
I'll take the silent treatment
When words get in the way

Oh, politician, magician
You made your point
Another night, another day
Needless to say

I heard the blues this morning
Before I saw first light
Insinuation of the daytime
Long before it got bright

My un-nameable self
Lives inside the dark
Full of innuendo
A very hungry shark

Needless to say
Needless to say, I love you
Needless to say
Needless to say, I love you

I wanna fly on the fast plane
Get there before I'm gone
'Cause action speaks louder
I've gone [Incomprehensible]

That jet's been grounded
Flying for the song
In the flow of the jet stream
Blown before the storm

Needless to say so pardon me
Needless to say, I love you
Needless to say so pardon me
Needless to say, I love you

In the heat of the moment
Of the heat of the moment

Of the heat of the moment
Needless to say
