(feat. Christopher Cross)

Lucky is as lucky does
Iâve heard it all before
If you taste the cake you bake
Youâll appreciate it more
I believe in destiny
But I am free to choose whatâs best for me
There are no accidents
Mere serendipitous events
I was born to love you, born to love you
Itâs no coincidence
Not one believerâs lucky chance
I was born to love youâ... Only youâ...
Went to have my fortune told
Instead she read my mind
Said âIn the wings a little soul
Is waiting for your lightâ
I denied what was meant for me
Then you arrived and now I clearly see
(Chorus)
Turning and turning while life passes by
All that we love in the blink of an eye
Where could I search for this happiness found
Right next to youâ...
Lucky is as lucky does
And a blessing is divine
Long before I dreamed it so
Somewhere you were mine
Now I believe in destiny
But I am free to choose whatâs best for me
There are no accidents
Mere serendipitous events
I was born to love you, born to love you
Itâs no coincidence
Not one believerâs lucky chance
I was born to love youâ... Only youâ...
