Maybe Iâ€™m wrong, maybe youâ€™re right
Maybe Iâ€™m too amped up for this fight
Maybe Iâ€™ll lose, maybe youâ€™ll win
Maybe this groove is wearing thin
Everytime you shine that light I know
Everything Iâ€™m hiding starts to glow
Underneath the surface something grows
Only you know how deep it goes
Only you know how deep it goes
Will you forgive if I canâ€™t forget
What if I just canâ€™t let go yet
Yesterday burns under my skin
Maybe youâ€™ll cool it once again
(Chorus)
I wrap my arms around it
Like I canâ€™t live without it
I feel it rushinâ€™ to my head
I hand it off to you and
Somehow you see right through and Turn me outside/in
Maybe Iâ€™m lost, maybe youâ€™ll find
I was just dancing out of time
Now I will hush, now I can breathe
Knowing thereâ€™s someone who believes
Everytime you shine that light I know
Everything Iâ€™m hiding starts to glow
Underneath the surface something grows
Only you know how deep it goes
Only you know how deep it goes
