Well Iâ€™ve been tearing down all of my fences lately
And Iâ€™ve been hanging round feelings I used to fear
I would close my eyes, go where the road would take me
Rollinâ€™ along for the ride, but lately Iâ€™m changing gears
No more living my life from the back seat baby
Sittin there watchin my world go by
Iâ€™ve got the key and now Iâ€™m takin the wheel
I quit my job, moved to a place in the country Where what you do for a living doesnâ€™t say who you are
I traveled far to find a place inside me
I am the road and the journeyâ€¦I am the movinâ€™ car
No more living my life from the back seat baby
Sittin there watchin my world go by
Iâ€™ve got the key and now Iâ€™m takin the wheel
Big city life, no big deal
Gets a lot smaller in the rear-view mirror
Took a raise in happiness, a cut in pay
Got less to do and more to say
No more living my life from the back seat baby
Sittin there watchin my world go by
Iâ€™ve got the key and now Iâ€™m takin the wheel
