"The Scar Of Damnation"

Travelling through unknown land
I'm carrying the seven deadly sins in my hand
Guided by the eyes of infinity
My fury carries me on
Love is lost, joy is lost
I can feel the hate of hells wrath
Father of darkness shows me my way
Reaching certain places, but I cannot stay

I move like a shadow, I dance with the dead

My troops have been withdrawn, I walk alone
I have no armour, embraced by mist
No fear has ever crossed my mind
Follow the wind, It whispers...
Words that cannot be spoken
There can be only one, one of a kind
I walk for those left behind

I move like a shadow, I dance with the dead.

Hand in hand with fire, destined to win
I wear the mark, the scar of damnation
The scar of damnation

The air breathes eternal life, it grabs my limbs
I'm lifted up in a void of tranquillity
A stream of golden darkness fills my veins

I wear the mark, the scar of damnation

... I walk no more
