It's time to go
Someone has to move on
But I don't believe I'm strong
That's what you should know

I find it hard to leave you
And I just can't understand
What am I without you?
Are we meant to face the end?

If you really need to go
Then I will never have to curse you
And I'll never ever have to beg you
Someday I'll find my way

When I look into the sun
I see you shining above me
Embracing all the memories
That you made my fantasy
Would I learn to rest to live my life again?

It's time to go
I should have to move on
Now that you are finally gone
How am I to know?

I find it hard to leave you
And I just could not pretend
What am I without you?
Are we meant to face the end?

If you really need to go
Then I will never have to curse you
And I'll never ever have to beg you
Someday I'll find my way yeah...

When I look into the sun
I see you shining above me
Embracing all the memories
That you made my fantasy
Would I learn to rest to live my life again?

When I look into the sun
I see you shining above me
Embracing all the memories
That you made my fantasy
Would I learn to rest to live my life again?
