[Hook]

I did heard it all before
Yeah you jammin but your industry Need some guidance and some diamonds cause its more than its to ride
I did heard it all before
We'll be travellin and flying state to state
Fuckin hoes rockin shows if you sign
I did heard it all before
Yeah in this game what you claim made the fame
Mississippi ain't for fame change your name
I did heard it all before
But your talent is by far blessin and a gift from God
But we can turn you to a star
I did heard it all before

Never loosin it, pursuing it, my vision
In my kitchen, writing rhymes,
Pray to god that they listen
But it's a real fucked up position
That this rap shit might just put you in My partner filled the week the game,
Like he might send that kush again
Cause cd's we've been pushing in
But bills ain't coming fast enough
When he need to go feed his kids
And then she hereâ€¦!
Passing us by time, never wait busy home
Sit aside my grandma wish that I could say
The phone ringing promises so confident
The money play, I â€¦! make to the struggle like
They might sign me any day
Forever trapped, no coming back
Addiction's truly hard to break
1000 pills could never fill
The gap of leaving off the stage

But your talent is by far blessin and a gift from God
But we can turn you to a star
I did heard it all before

I try on being righteous, do it big or do it bigger
But ain't â€¦ in the street, I'm forced to follow them on Twitter
I'm paying pictures, get on compositions, living local art
But dancing in the circle dresses urkle how you make your mark
Hey, get your star, play your part, find your swag
Get your deal
So you're snapping, who needs rapping when you got some adlibs
Cusue some days there's no choices
Most days is hard times
If skinny jeans mean big dreams
No thanks, I'm just fine
And my mind is bout rhyme
I'm just trying to feel free
My Shawty feel illuminati's real
And they might kill me
For voicing my opinions
Scared to die, but this ain't living
In this meetings, they can't tell me what I'm missing
