[Intro:]

You can mourn for me baby, life goes on
Try not to cry too much
I'll see you again soon

[Verse 1:]

If I should die from this rap shit
On a plane to a show for the masses
The media will say it's oh so tragic
A king lost, shed tears for my passin'
Remember I was happy here that's what I'm askin'
When I was with ya, yea, you always kept me laughin'
Forgive me for the plans that we never made
And I the things I wish I could but I never say
I hope God overlook the days I never prayed
And embrace a sudden loss if I'm never saved
And even though it be far far before my time
I can say I lived life
If I should die

[Hook:]

It be far far before my time
I mean far far before my time
But I won't doubt ya; how can I?
Because I've known you

[Verse 2:]

If I should die
Mind I never wanted to leave
Let the niggas in the hood throw a party for me
Smoke good, drink good, blow something my way
Don't trip dry your eyes just keep yo faith
And let the hoes that I used to know from way before
Kiss me from my head to my toes
Give me some paper and pens
So I can write about the world
The child I never had and my favorite girl
No legacy on my own but I did what I could Never liked saying goodbyes
But I know that I probably should
Even though it be far far before my time
Just know that I'm fine

If I should die

[Hook:]

It be far far before my time
I mean far far before my time
But I won't doubt ya; how can I?
Because I've known you

[Verse 3:]

If I should die
Just know that I went out in a blaze
From some hater plotting to kill me
Cause he know that I'm paid
Tell my niggas hold they horses don't kill pimpin'
I forgive him, you should too, let God deal with him
Anytime you see the purpose of mercy
No weapon formed against me on earth shall hurt me
Yeah heaven's right in front of my, I'm hoping I'm worthy
All I have is faith, Lord I can't be certain
What my future holds
Or where will I go when I exit this vessel
And these brown eyes close
Even though it be far far before my time
I can say I tried
If I should die

[Hook:]

It be far far before my time
I mean far far before my time
But I won't doubt ya; how can I?
Because I've known you
