Ah, the way the walks is beautiful, the way he talks is beautiful
Uh, the brother is beautiful
The way he makes love to me is beautiful
You know, that's my man!

Hook:

Platinum chains and rings is
All a brother knows now
Girl, you one of the first to know
Gold is back in town
So you gotta serve this royalty
Believing in me and my dreams
Is serving this royalty right
Trust what I say and what I see and we can get it

Yeah, money, cars and clothes and all the cribs Never trust these lames and hoes 'cause they ain't shit
Plus they ain't just got dreams of things and jumped ships
So we'll fly first class, full glass with blunts lit Float on I'll shake the world if you hold on Get your body off, just to turn your soul on Your black is gold so when it dark, get your glow on My words are heavy like a Chevy, shall I roll on?
Our love's unlimited, vinyl record in the grooves of forever bass and treble bend this shit Puff cut your affections like a painting God ain't finished with
Now had to be displayed so all these songs could say they finished it
I walk the talk so I can't run game I'm the type of King that need a Queen that's down to work and run thing
I'm a lion baby, untamed
Before I devote my all I need to know one thing,
Can you serve this royalty?

[Hook:]

Whatever your heart desires
And to those that oppose our dreams and goals I set the world on fire
Go to war with giants of all kinds so when you sleep without your King beside you, you sleep fine I be you knight in shining armour, swing down with a hammer like Thor for those that want drama Travel high low for those expensive garments that I Peel off your frame after I fight in your honor 'Cause we can rule as far as the eye can see If you down for the cause as long as your body breathe Bet the heir that will proceed as Kings that's after me
But be colder than doors we close you'll have to be There'll be tyrants that want nothing more than apathy
To defile on the kingdom of real and happiness
But history will whisper of our reign
Before I give my all, I need to know one thing,
Can you serve this royalty?

[Hook:]

The dream is real if you serve this royalty
Leave your mama's house, make her proud Serve this royalty right
From the valleys of Spain to the snowed banks of Maine
We can run this game
If you serve this royalty right

That's but you behind me 100%, man
She believes in everything I believe in And whatever I do, she go, ride along with me and do it at the same time, you know?
With no doubt in her mind 'cause she know that I'm positive,
and she knows that I'm out to get over, and she knows that I'ma try and get a piece of this country.
