"Lifetime With You"

trivial engagements, day to day bind me to a world that seems to be my wife she's the bride i never kissed my intentions were not this but now i've made you my King, a casual fling, but Jesus i don't wanna have a love affair with You my promises are true i wanna be your bride devoted to You and only You this is more than just a passion i want a lifetime not a love affair with You love letters composed in a book for me to read captured my thoughts a made a vow to me now it's my turn to consummate our vows and turn this romance into i do and wed You and death will never be our part but only where it begins no your love for me, it cannot be divided
